

AFRICAN SNAKE FACTS

FACTS

TONGUE CANNOT STING YOU

NO EYELIDS

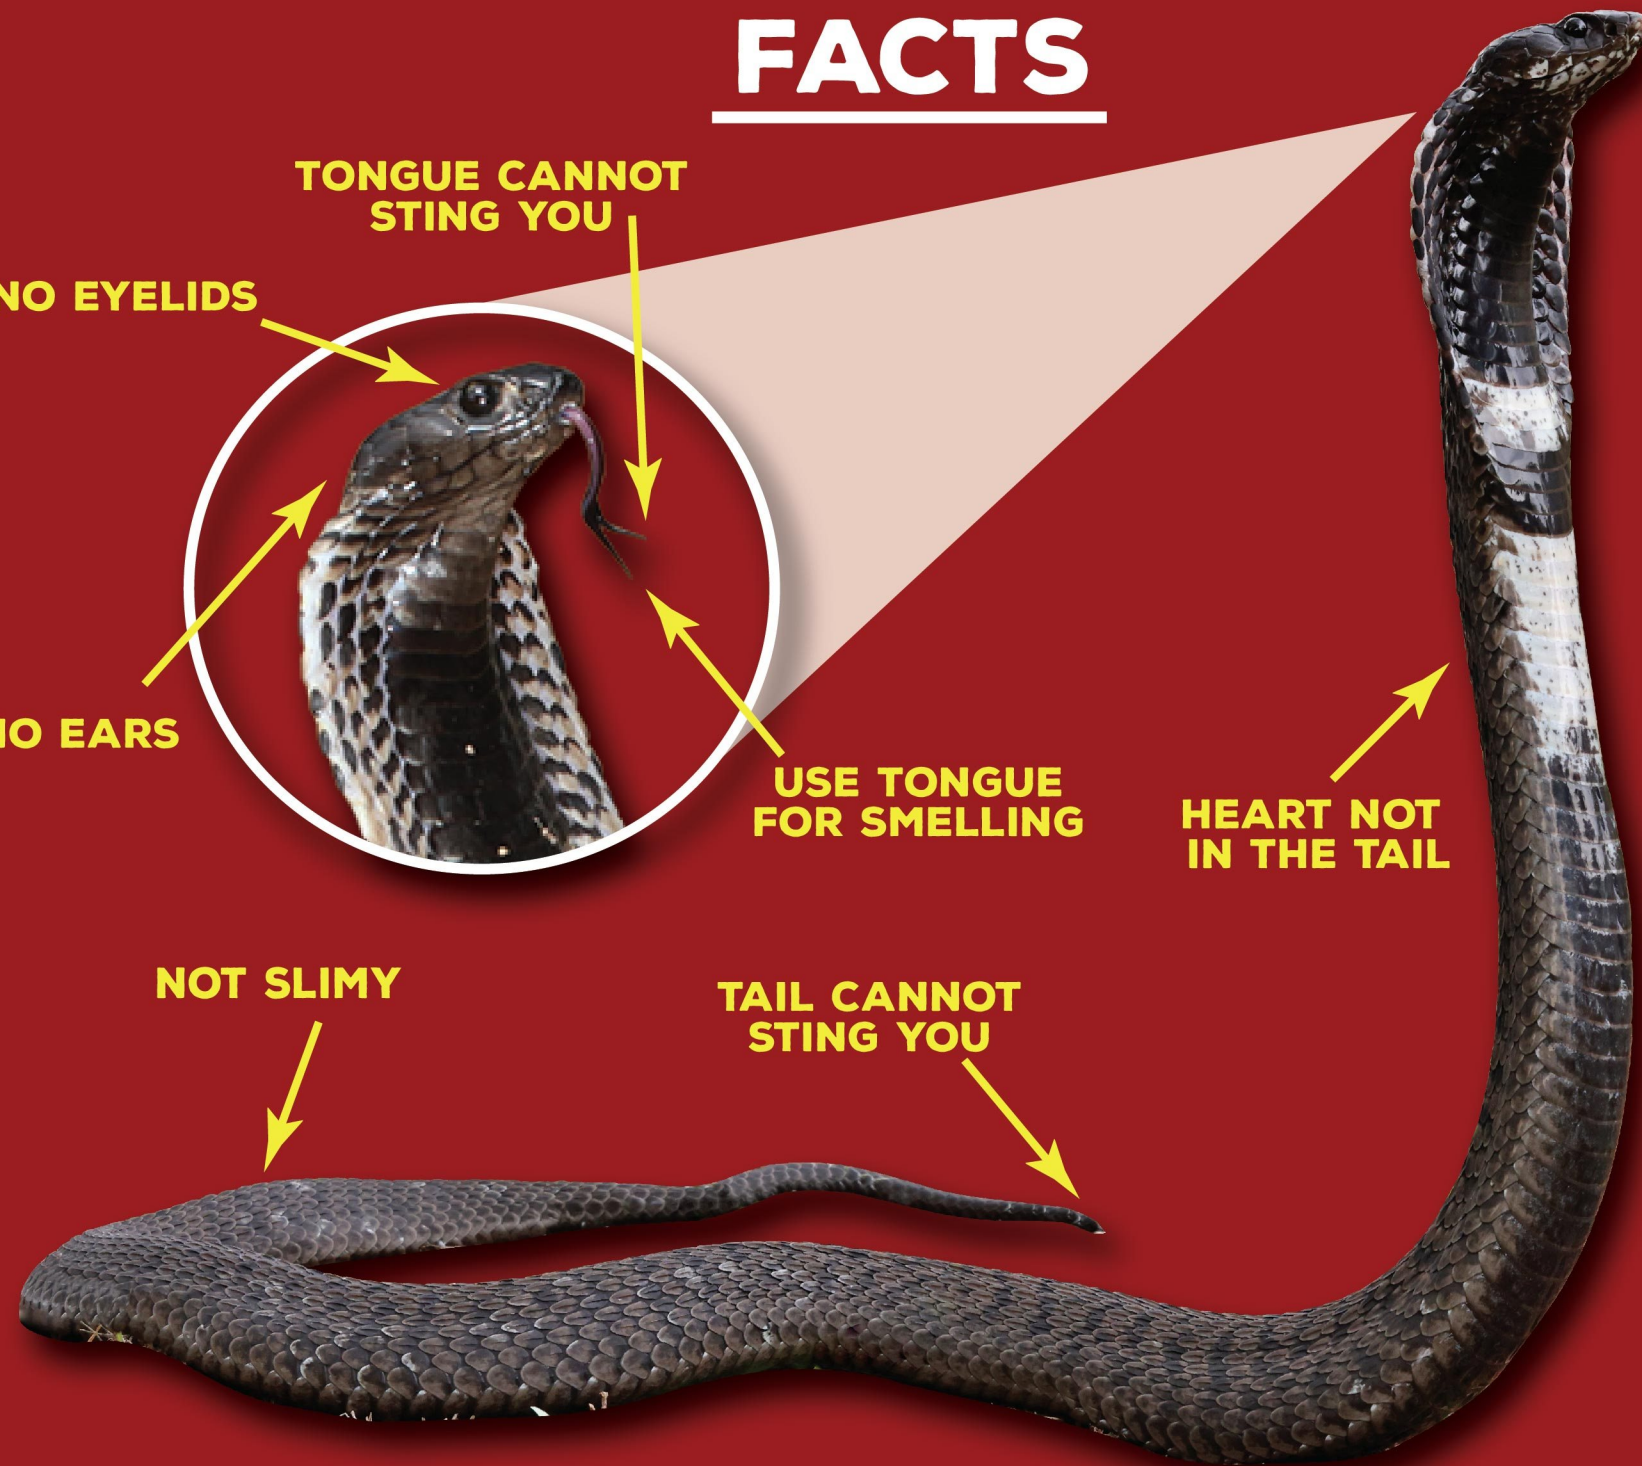

NO EARS

USE TONGUE FOR SMELLING

HEART NOT IN THE TAIL

NOT SLIMY

TAIL CANNOT STING YOU

POPULAR MYTHS - BUSTED

- ... In Africa, snakes don't truly hibernate.
- ... Not all snakes can spit their venom.
- ... Not all snakes are venomous.
- ... Snake repellents do not work.
- ... Snakes do not chase people.
- ... Snakes cannot jump or fly.
- ... Snakes do not move in pairs.
- ... Snakes do not avenge the death of another snake.
- ... Mothers do not look after their young.
- ... A snake's heart is not in its tail.
- ... The tail does not have venom.
- ... A snake's skeleton is not venomous.
- ... Snakes do not dislocate the jaw to swallow large prey.
- ... All snakes have eyes.
- ... Snakes do not have ear openings.
- ... Snakes are not aggressive.
- ... Snakes do not attack people but may bite in desperation if hurt, threatened or cornered.

FREE ASI SNAKES APP

Johan Marais | African Snakebite Institute

+27 82 494 2039 | johan@asiorg.co.za

www.AFRICANSNAKEBITEINSTITUTE.com

